After receiving the email, follow the instructions in the email to register the credit card information to be used for payment. After a few days, you will receive an automated email notifying you that your eVISA has been issued.

4. You may be requested to appear for an in-person interview during the course of the review.

5. The processing time for an eVISA is the same as that for a traditional sticker visa. We do NOT offer expedited service. In the eVISA system, you can only select scheduled dates of entry into Japan after 7 days from the submission date. Currently, due to a high volume of eVISA applications, it is taking longer to process them.
