

Transit (Only Countries/Regions Other Than Visa Exemption Countries/Regions)

Applicants going to a third country via Japan.

-Basically, anyone from a non-visa exemption country/region who passes through immigration on their way to a third country needs a transit visa. Those who do not pass through immigration do not need a visa. Since this depends on the flights and the airport, applicants should check with their airlines to make sure.

-Activities in Japan are limited to sightseeing, recreation, rest, etc., and do not include visits to relatives/acquaintances.

Applicants should submit the following documents. Additional documents may be requested during the course of review.

<input type="checkbox"/> 1. An application form . (Sample) - Completed and signed in “wet ink” (no electronic signatures).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. A valid passport (original). - With sufficient space for a visa. - Submit a copy of the identification page as well.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. A passport-sized photograph. - 2 X 1.4 inch. - On glossy photo paper. - Taken within the last six months. - With plain background. - Glue to the entered application form (not stapled, not taped).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. A Green Card or valid I-94 and US resident visa to re-enter US. - F or J visa holders must include an I-20 or DS-2019 with the valid signature of an appropriate official in order for re-entry. - Copies are acceptable. - Applications from B-1 and B-2 visa holders are NOT accepted.
<input type="checkbox"/> 5. A confirmed flight reservation record of round-trip flight to/from the destination country. - Covering the entire trip both departing from and returning to our jurisdiction. - An e-ticket or print-out from a travel agency, airline or travel website is acceptable, but the applicant’s name should be printed on it. - Applicants are not required to purchase a ticket, as the Consulate is NOT responsible for issuing a visa before the departure date. We do NOT offer expedited service.
<input type="checkbox"/> 6. A visa or clearance from the destination country. - Applicants must have a visa or clearance from the destination country before applying for a transit visa. - If applicants are eligible for visa waiver or visa on arrival, attach a document to show it (e.g., a website copy or published document from the government of the destination country).

7. Proof of address (ex. a copy of driver's license, utility bill).
