

Dr. Brian Greenwood

Hideyo Noguchi Africa Prize Unit
Cabinet Office
Feb. 2012

1 Laureate of the Hideyo Noguchi Africa Prize in 2008 (Medical Research Field)

Manson Professor of Clinical Tropical Medicine, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine (LSHTM). Born 1938 in the UK.

He was awarded for his bold and innovative work in Malaria.

(N.B: He also won Canada Gairdner Global Health Award in March 2012 for contributions to significantly reducing mortality in children due to meningitis and acute respiratory infection and to contributions to malaria prevention.)

2 Africa London Nagasaki scholarship

- (1) Dr. Greenwood established Africa-London-Nagasaki Scholarship Fund (ALN) in cooperation with LSHTM and Institute of Tropical Medicine (NEKKEN) Nagasaki University with the honorarium of the Prize.
- (2) Objective of ALN: The ALN Scholarship Fund supports African medical researchers wishing to undertake a Master's degree related to the control of infectious diseases in Africa.
- (3) Achievements : Each year (N.B: the original plan's term is five years.) , up to five scientists learn at LSHTM or NEKKEN
The First round of the scholarship (2010/2011)
The number of applicants:486 The number of successful candidates:5
The second round of the scholarship (2011/2012)
The number of applicants:857 The number of successful candidates:5

ALN Reseachers at LSHTM and NIKKEN (source: ALN Website)

Limangeni Mankhambo, MSc, LSHTM
I chose the Epidemiology of Communicable Disease Control and Spatial Epidemiology modules. Currently, I have just completed the Advanced Statistical Methods in Epidemiology and AIDS modules

Dr. Ariyoshi and ALN student
Dr. Ariyoshi: I can feel Dr. Greenwood's enthusiasm, "Cultivating the true African leaders is the best way to contribute to African future"

Alex Barasa, MSc, NEKKEN
From this course I am appreciating a comprehensive view and understanding of tropical medicine which is advancing my career through equipping me with more skills and knowledge to share with my colleagues, seniors and juniors.

Augstin Zoungrana, MSc, NEKKEN
The superb mentorship and friendly laboratory environment accorded me provided a great opportunity and I was able to acquire knowledge and learn many skills in the course of my experiments.

3 Other Activities

In March 2010, Dr. Greenwood participated in Hideyo Noguchi Memorial Symposium in Ghana and gave a lecture, under the auspice of His Imperial Highness the Crown Prince.

December 2008, Dr. Greenwood gave a special lecture at Hokkaido University, Japan.

March 2010, Dr. Greenwood (on the left), Dr. Kiyoshi Kurokawa (middle) and Prof. Miriam K. Were (right) at Hideyo Noguchi Memorial Institute for Medical Research in Ghana.